Section 2 Restriction options

Any restrictions on access must be countersigned by the Director of Postgraduate Studies overleaf.

I would like my thesis to be unavailable for consultation for the following number of years:

- 1 year 2 years 3 years
 4 years 5 years Indefinitely¹

Please indicate the reason for your consultation restriction with a tick in the relevant box(es) below:

- The thesis includes material intended for future publication (e.g. as a series of articles).
- The thesis includes material that if disclosed would constitute an actionable breach of confidence.
- The thesis includes material that is the subject of a pending patent.
- The thesis includes material that if disclosed would be likely to prejudice the commercial interests of a person or an organisation (e.g. a trade secret).
- The thesis contains third party personal information; this information may include sensitive personal data (e.g. information relating to race, ethnic origins, political opinions, religious beliefs, health, trade unions, sexual life, offences and alleged offences).
- The thesis includes sensitive information that if disclosed would be likely to endanger the physical or mental health or safety of any individual. As this threat is so great, for the period of the restriction I would also like my thesis title omitted from the Library catalogue and institutional repository.
- Other (Please provide details).

¹Restrictions of more than 5 years will only be considered for theses containing highly sensitive information. If your thesis requires a longer restriction period, please attach a detailed written explanation with this form.
